OFA Champions of Health

2008 Champion of Health: Ch. Rivergrove's Kendall-Jackson HOF HOF. Bred, owned, and handled by Jean Boyd. Kendall has proven himself in the ring with multiple all breed Best in Shows, multiple Specialty Best of Breeds, and GPCA Hall of Fame status. Kendall comes from a long line of health screened dogs, has OFA Hip, Cardiac, and Patella certifications, and has met the breed requirements for CHIC. Perhaps even more importantly, Kendall has excelled as a sire with over 50 champion offspring. Of these, over 40 of them have OFA health certifications, and 15 of them have also attained CHIC status. Kendall is a beautiful, successful, healthy dog, and is passing these traits consistently to his get.

2009 Champion of Health: Ch. Impyrial's Love American Style HOF. "Devon" was breeder/owner/handled by Karon Justin throughout his career to 7 all breed Best In Shows, 4 Specialty Best of Breeds, and 2 Westminster KC Best of Breeds. He is ranked among the top Pyrenees of all time, and is in the Great Pyrenees Club of America (GPCA) Hall of Fame. Devon's health clearances include hips, eyes, cardiac, and patellas. He is a CHIC dog based on the health testing requirements established by the GPCA. In addition, both his sire and dam are CHIC dogs, his littermate is a CHIC dog, and he has sired CHIC offspring.

2010 Champion of Health: Ch Euzkaizale' Heart of a Soldier HOF RN TDI VX CGC. "Patton" is a family companion but the catch here is the magnitude of his family. As a service and therapy dog, he has visited Alzheimer and dementia patients at long term care facilities, patients at rehab facilities as well as VA care centers. Many of these people bonded with Patton and will not soon forget him. Patton is also a regular tutorial assistant at a special ed class at the local high school. The Champion of Health application for Patton was inclusive of 25 letters from kids, fellow teachers and school administrators applauding his contribution to their wellness. Patton has a CHIC registry, a GPCA Gold Health Award and 6 OFA Passing Health Clearances.
OFA Champions of Health

2011 Champion of Health: GCh Calurian Ailo Mountain Sage RA, DD, CGC, HOF, bred by Laurie Gottschalk and Karla Smith and owned by Nancy Wood Taber. Ailo had an excellent 2010 with multiple Specialty Best of Breeds and multiple all breed group placements. Ailo holds a full complement of health screenings. Perhaps even more importantly, Ailo's distinguished career includes Rally, Draft and Therapy work. Ailo's impressive accomplishments and abilities in conformation, obedience, drafting, Therapy Dog work along with the outstanding accomplishments of his offspring and as a public education participant combined with his excellent health, intelligence and temperament which have made all his accomplishments possible, qualify him as an outstanding Ambassador for the Great Pyrenees breed.

2012 Champion of Health: BIS MRBIS AKC GCh AKC/UKC/Int'l Ch Valle d'Aspe Scandalous Affair CD GN EN RAE NAP UAGII URO1 CGC VX HIT HOF, bred by Chea Michaels and Jo Stubbs and owned by Jo Stubbs and Chea Michaels. "Flynn" is a remarkable Great Pyrenees. He is a conformation champion with multiple group wins and placements, he is a High In Trial winner and a Best In Show winner, and has earned Obedience, Rally and Agility titles in multiple registries. He has also earned GPA Obedience/Performance Hall of Fame and Versatility Awards. His health clearances include hips, elbows and patellas.

2013 OFA Champion of Health: GCh. Rivergroves Trump This has had multiple Best in Shows and an illustrious career in the ring. More importantly to the health of our breed, this Great Pyrenees Champion of Health has also passed all of the necessary OFA tests to qualify for CHIC registry. In addition, Trump currently has 16 tested get holding 42 health clearances and 6 of them have met the criteria for CHIC registration numbers. He also has two full siblings and two half-siblings with CHIC registry. We applaud Trump as our 6th Champion of Health.
